CS-VUE ENHANCEMENTS - PROJECT BY CONDITIONS

Introducing a new product feature which allows the user to create a conditions only project. This means that users are now able to view compliancy only of selected conditions that may belong to a number of different permits.

This is a big step in being able to group together only the conditions that relate entirely to each party, and hiding any unnecessary extraneous information.

Condition project ideas:

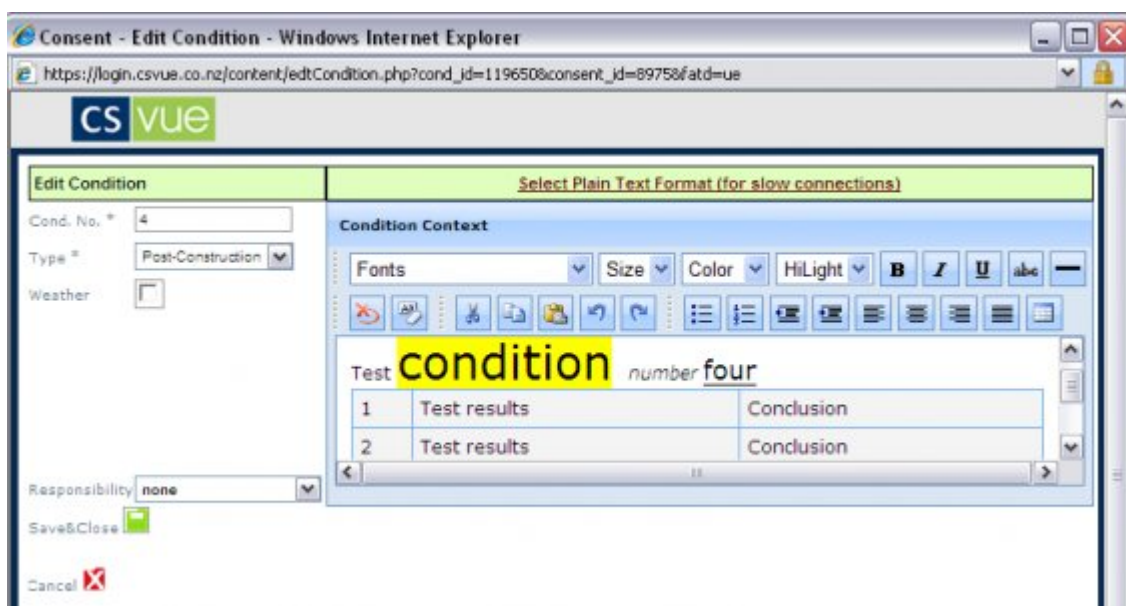

- Annual reporting conditions project
- Third party consultancy conditions project
- All water quality monitoring conditions project
- Site managers' ongoing site maintenance and compliance conditions project

If you would like to find out how to use this feature, you can contact:

CS-VUE ENHANCEMENTS - RICH TEXT FIELD EDITOR

The rich text editor has now been set as an option on the "edit condition" page whereby the user can select the type of format (plain text or rich text) prior to condition text entry.

This will allow those with administrator access ability to enter tables directly into the condition fields, allowing for easier identification and analysis of data.

Other key tools include bullet points, bold, highlight and text size adjustment for faster identification of key tasks when scanning conditions.
